

Privacy Policy for the North East Border Collie Association Website nebca.net

Last updated: March, 2025

This Privacy Policy describes Our policies and procedures on the collection, use and disclosure of Your information when You use the Website. By using the Website, You agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Definitions

For the purposes of this Privacy Policy:

- NEBCA (referred to as either “We”, “Us” or “Our” in this Agreement) refers to the North East Border Collie Association, Inc.
- Website refers to the NEBCA Website, nebca.net.
- You means the individual accessing the Website.
- Device means any device that can access the Website such as a computer, mobile phone or digital tablet.
- Personal Data is any information that relates to an identified or identifiable individual.
- Usage Data is information about the activity on the Website. It does not include personal data.

Website Purpose and Scope

The Website provides information about the organization, the activities and programs it engages in and the services it provides. This information is available to both members and non-members. The list below summarizes the website contents and features

- The mission, governing documents, rules and policies
- Officers and committees
- Information about past and future activities and business
- Information on the programs & services offered
- Information related to the mission
- Allows online payment for
 - Annual membership dues
 - Purchase of fundraising items
 - Placing classified ads

What the Website does not do:

- It does not collect or store any personal data.
- It does not allow for online user accounts or have any subscription options.

This includes applying for membership. These must all be done by mail, email or phone. As such, the Website has no provision for entering or submitting personal or financial information.

Financial Data

All financial transactions on the Website are processed using Paypal and NEBCA is not privy to any sensitive personal or financial information. NEBCA only receives basic information from Paypal regarding transactions (payer, date, amount) and this is never disclosed.

Usage Data

The Website may collect usage data to help understand how it is being used and to guide future enhancements. Usage data is collected automatically when someone visits the website. This data includes which pages are visited, when and for how long, and how You arrived at those pages. It may also include information such as Your Device's IP address, browser type, browser version, operating system, and unique device identifiers and other diagnostic data. All usage data collected is anonymous.

Cookies

The Website may use Cookies to track activity and store certain information. A cookie is a small file placed on Your Device. You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, some parts of this website may not function properly or be as convenient to use.